Houlihan's opens in Naperville

Houlihan's opened its newest Chicago-area location June 30 at 2860 Showplace Drive in Naperville, creating nearly 150 jobs.

"We give a jolt to people's expectations of casual dining, not only with the taste, quality and presentation of our food, but our personality and atmosphere," Tim Wrona, general manager of the new Naperville restaurant, said in a news release. "Everything from our modern, open décor, fashionable uniforms, indie music soundtrack, unique menu design and our ageless bar experience have been carefully thought out to set us apart from other casual restaurants."

Houlihan's is owned by Houlihan's Restaurants Inc. of Leawood, Kan.
